Subject: Submission of Compliance Report

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Institute is pleased to submit the compliance report in response to the observations, suggestions, and deficiencies pointed out by the Expert Committee during the Academic Audit conducted for the academic session 2024–25.

The point-wise compliance is as under:

1. The Institute has encouraged faculty members to pursue Ph.D. programmes, and some faculty members are already enrolled in Ph.D. courses.
2. All faculty members are being motivated and provided necessary support to publish research papers in reputed journals.
3. The Institute conducted Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs) during the previous academic session and is committed to organizing more FDPs in the upcoming academic session.
4. The Institute regularly collects, reviews, and analyzes feedback from students and faculty members for continuous academic improvement.
5. The Institute has initiated the accreditation process and is actively working towards obtaining accreditation as per the prescribed norms.
6. Placement drives have already been conducted, and students are being encouraged to ensure maximum participation in future placement activities.

The Institute assures its continued commitment to maintaining academic standards and complying with the guidelines of the University and statutory bodies.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

For Dr. Sanju Singhal
Principal
